Large Court & the balance

I have been thinking of writing you some time but have been so busy that I could not find time to do so. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I have not much news

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in dark ink on aged, yellowed paper. The script is dense and somewhat difficult to decipher due to its cursive nature and the fading of the ink. The text appears to be organized into several paragraphs, with some lines starting with capital letters. There are some markings above the text, possibly indicating line numbers or specific sections. The overall appearance is that of an old, well-used manuscript.

[The page contains approximately 25 lines of handwritten text in a cursive script, which is extremely faded and difficult to decipher. The ink is dark but the paper is aged and the characters are often illegible.]

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is dense and spans most of the page, with some lines appearing to be crossed out or heavily faded. The script is characteristic of the early modern period.
